
Globe Wireless installs node in Australia

www.globewireless.com

Globe Wireless, which operates a global maritime data network, has commissioned a radio node in Darwin, Australia. The node will provide additional radio capacity to users of the network, bringing the total number of nodes operated by Globe Wireless to 17. It will be operated by ITS Communications, a division of Integrated Technical Services Pty Ltd
